SEISKAYA OPEN MAKEUP POLICY: Makeup classes are available only during the month in which a class was missed, unless the missed class was during the last week of the month. In that event, an additional class will be added to the following month's card, provided that the student: 1) purchases the appropriate number of classes based on the student's established frequency of attendance, and 2) takes the total number of scheduled classes offered during the month. For example, a student attending once a week on Saturdays misses the last class meeting of the month in which there were four Saturdays. The following month has five Saturdays. Seiskaya will recognize, with the purchase of five classes, the addition of one extra class which may be made up at any time during the ensuing month. If, for some reason, a student elects to purchase fewer than the scheduled class meetings, there will be no makeup awarded. Makeups are a privilege, and students are not permitted to "short" the tuition in order to utilize unused classes. Students are permitted without prior notice to take another class section at the same or lower class level. Expired cards cannot be honored for classes even if unused classes are shown on your card.

Hold Harmless: It is mutually agreed and understood that parents, legal guardians of minors, students and adult students, waive the right to legal action against Seiskaya Ballet, its principals and staff for any injury sustained in Studio A, Studio B, Seiskaya offices, connecting hallways and building 7 North central bathrooms resulting from normal dance activity or any other activity conducted by students before, during and after class. This Hold Harmless in no way effects any person's legal rights with respect to recovery from the landlord or other parties.

I the undersigned have read and understand the conditions of registration listed on this form and the current 'OPEN' schedule as pertain to students at Seiskaya Ballet.
